AMENDS:

62A-4a-410, as last amended by Laws of Utah 2005, Chapter 102

63-30d-202, as enacted by Laws of Utah 2004, Chapter 267

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the state of Utah:

Section 1. Section 62A-4a-410 is amended to read:

62A-4a-410. Immunity from liability -- Exceptions.

(1) [Any] Except as provided in Subsection (3), any person, official, or institution participating in good faith in making a report, taking photographs or X-rays, assisting an investigator from the division, serving as a member of a child protection team, or taking a child into protective custody pursuant to this part, is immune from any liability, civil or criminal, that otherwise might result by reason of those actions.

(2) This section does not provide immunity with respect to acts or omissions of a governmental employee except as provided in Title 63, Chapter 30d, Governmental Immunity Act of Utah.

(3) The immunity described in Subsection (1) does not apply if the person, official, or institution:

(a) acted or failed to act through fraud or willful misconduct;

(b) in a judicial or administrative proceeding, intentionally or knowingly gave, upon a lawful oath or in any form allowed by law as a substitute for an oath, false testimony material to the issue or matter of inquiry in the proceeding; or

(c) intentionally or knowingly:

(i) fabricated evidence; or

(ii) with a conscious disregard for the rights of others, failed to disclose evidence that:

(A) was known to the person, official, or institution; and

(B) was known by the person, official, or institution to be relevant to an issue or matter of inquiry in a judicial or administrative proceeding.

Section 2. Section 63-30d-202 is amended to read:

63-30d-202. Act provisions not construed as admission or denial of liability --

Effect of waiver of immunity -- Exclusive remedy -- Joinder of employee -- Limitations on personal liability.

(1) (a) Nothing contained in this chapter, unless specifically provided, may be construed as an admission or denial of liability or responsibility by or for a governmental entity or its employees.

(b) If immunity from suit is waived by this chapter, consent to be sued is granted, and liability of the entity shall be determined as if the entity were a private person.

(c) No cause of action or basis of liability is created by any waiver of immunity in this chapter, nor may any provision of this chapter be construed as imposing strict liability or absolute liability.

(2) Nothing in this chapter may be construed as adversely affecting any immunity from suit that a governmental entity or employee may otherwise assert under state or federal law.

(3) (a) Except as provided in Subsection (3)(c), an action under this chapter against a governmental entity for an injury caused by an act or omission that occurs during the performance of an employee's duties, within the scope of employment, or under color of authority is a plaintiff's exclusive remedy.

(b) Judgment under this chapter against a governmental entity is a complete bar to any action by the claimant, based upon the same subject matter, against the employee whose act or omission gave rise to the claim.

(c) A plaintiff may not bring or pursue any civil action or proceeding based upon the same subject matter against the employee or the estate of the employee whose act or omission gave rise to the claim, unless:

(i) the employee acted or failed to act through fraud or willful misconduct;

(ii) the injury or damage resulted from the employee driving a vehicle, or being in actual physical control of a vehicle:

(A) with a blood alcohol content equal to or greater by weight than the established legal limit;

(B) while under the influence of alcohol or any drug to a degree that rendered the person incapable of safely driving the vehicle; or

(C) while under the combined influence of alcohol and any drug to a degree that rendered the person incapable of safely driving the vehicle;

(iii) injury or damage resulted from the employee being physically or mentally

90 impaired so as to be unable to reasonably perform [~~his or her~~] the employee's job function
91 because of:

92 (A) the use of alcohol;

93 (B) the nonprescribed use of a controlled substance as defined in Section 58-37-4; or

94 (C) the combined influence of alcohol and a nonprescribed controlled substance as 95 defined by Section 58-37-4; [~~or~~]

96 (iv) in a judicial or administrative proceeding, the employee intentionally or knowingly
97 gave, upon a lawful oath or in any form allowed by law as a substitute for an oath, false
98 testimony material to the issue or matter of inquiry under this section[~~;~~]; or

99 (v) the employee intentionally or knowingly:

100 (A) fabricated evidence; or

101 (B) with a conscious disregard for the rights of others, failed to disclose evidence that:

102 (I) was known to the employee; and

103 (II) was known by the employee to be relevant to an issue or matter of inquiry in a
104 judicial or administrative proceeding.

105 (4) Except as permitted in Subsection (3)(c), no employee may be joined or held
106 personally liable for acts or omissions occurring:

107 (a) during the performance of the employee's duties;

108 (b) within the scope of employment; or

109 (c) under color of authority.
